Subject: Re: complaint

Dear Mr. Dean,

I will be happy to provide you with more information about my complaint against the Chicago Police Department for failing to respond in any manner to my FOIA request.

In January of this year, I spoke to Wendi Liss of the Independent Police Review Board, who provided me with an Excel extract of police misconduct complaints over the past five years, including a description of the matter, date, and the race of the complainant. For various reasons, she said she was unable to supply the race of the police officer involved. She said she did not have access to all the data and could not vouch for its accuracy. She said, however, CPD does have the race of the officer in its computer system and should be able to pull the information. So I then made a FOIA request of CPD, asking for the same information--description, date, race of officer, and race of complainant for police--for police misconduct cases in the past five years. I used the form CPS has on its website:

http://www.cityofchicago.org/city/en/depts/cpd/supp_info/cpd_foia.html

Several months later, there has been no response or acknowledgement of any kind from CPD. Therefore, I wish to file a complaint against CPD for not following the law.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Yours truly,

[REDACTED]
